

Changes Affecting Indiana Producer Licensing Requirements

On June 14, Indiana issued Bulletin 150 which summarizes changes to the Indiana producer licensing requirements. The changes are effective July 1, 2007. Briefly,

- All producers' licenses issued or renewed on or after July 1, 2007, will be two year licenses.
- Expirations will be on the last day of the month two years from the date of issue or renewal of license.
- Licensing fees for the two year cycle will be $40.00 for a resident producer and $90.00 for a non-resident producer.
- Continuing education compliance will be required every two years and tied to the renewal date.
- Resident insurance producers licensed or renewed on or after July 1, 2007, must complete at least 20 hours of continuing education during their two year license renewal period.
- Residents currently holding a four year license will need to complete at least 40 hours of continuing education for their four year license before renewing and obtaining a two year license.
- Resident limited lines producers with a two year license (Funeral, Crop or Hail) must complete at least five hours of continuing education during the two-year license term.
- Resident limited lines producers with a Title qualification and a two year license will be required to complete at least seven hours of continuing education during the two year license term.
- Surplus lines producer licensing fees are due every two years.
- Surplus lines resident license fees are $80.00, and non-resident license fees are $120.00.
- Surplus lines renewal will be coordinated with the renewal of the producer's Property & Casualty license.
- Surety bonds are no longer required of surplus lines producers.

Copies of the amended requirements are available through the Indiana Department of Insurance web page (www.in.gov/idoi).
